DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-23 are presented for examination.
2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-10, 18 and 21, drawn to analyzing communication session, classified in class 709, subclass 224.
 - II. Claims 11-14, 19 and 22, drawn to preventing unauthorized transfer, classified in class 726, subclass 26.
 - III. Claims 15-17, 20 and 23, drawn to preventing data leaks, classified in class 726, subclass 23.

3. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I, II and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination contain distinct method steps not required by the subcombinations. The subcombination has separate utility such as preventing unauthorized and/or malicious transfer and preventing leaks of information by at least applying multi-dimensional content profiling.

The examiner has required restriction between combination and subcombination inventions. Where applicant elects a subcombination, and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

4. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. A shortened statutory period for reply to this Office action is set to expire ONE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action.

Art Unit: 2152
